

Stage Door Players 2006

There is adventure in sound...

Since 1984, the Atlanta Radio Theatre Company has been performing, recording, and broadcasting dramatic audio - fully dramatized, fully sound-scaped audio drama. This is the "Theatre of the Mind," as practiced in the Golden Age of Radio. By combining today's modern technology and dramatic techniques with the oldest form of entertainment, the human imagination, you have access to the best seat in the house for the most vivid movie you will ever see.

ARTC is a volunteer organization. If you are interested in giving your time in exchange for learning about the craft of audio drama, especially the technical aspects of our art form, we'd love to hear from you. For more information, or a catalog, please contact:

There's something about the Christmas season that brings out the nostalgia in all of us. It could be the upcoming New Year, which is an irresistible time to look back at what just ended before setting forth on what is about to begin. Or it could be that in the daily humdrum of our lives, this time is set aside each year to stop and take a collective breath with friends and family. After running around with a frantic, panicked look on our faces, scurrying after that perfect present for everyone, of course.

By the way, ARTC CDs are for sale in the lobby.

But whatever the reason, Christmas is the time for memories, whether creating new ones or reliving the old ones, and that's what our show tonight is about. But more than that, it's what we're about tonight as well.

ARTC is finishing its 22nd year. In that time we've performed live in dozens of venues to thousands of guests who have given us a small portion of their lives so that they could enjoy the Magic of Radio with us. Tonight, you are doing the same. Thank you. These are the memories we relive.

This year we have begun performing at the Stage Door Players. A new venue with new challenges and opportunities. We have also begun podcasting our archives of past live shows. You can hear them for free at WWW.ARTCPODCAST.ORG. These are the memories we create.

As we say in the show, everyone has their own special Christmas memories. Thank you for being a part of ours. We hope that you add us to yours as well.
